ABOUT SUN PRESSING (P) LIMITED

" It is the dream and cherish of a businessman turned entrepreneur and seasoned industrialist "

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen...

As our industrial analysts describe a company like Sun Pressing Private Limited – over 40 years of tradition, an independent family-owned business, among the industry leaders in its key business sectors in India – as a "hidden champion".

However, there is nothing hidden about our success – the key is our culture, which we are extremely proud of. It drives us to deliver maximum performance and forms the basis for our success and independence.

On the following pages, you'll find out more about how we work together and the values we are committed to upholding globally.

We are convinced of one thing that a company is successful, if, like Sun Pressing Private Limited, it makes consistent use of the opportunities that the markets offer, manages risks and is committed to continued growth. In a nutshell, a company is successful if it has a unique inner strength that allows it to systematically bundle the skills and motivation of its employees and partners.

Excellence in Sheet Metal Pressed components that has made Sun Pressing Private Limited, a trusted partner of the auto industry throughout the world. As one of the India's leading manufacturers and suppliers of original equipment, we make a key contribution to comfortable, safe and sustainable process.

As consumer needs are expected to become more and more diverse, we realize the necessity to support diversity for our customers as well. Our efforts continue to focus on these market trends and needs, and we will continue to offer unique and highly value-added products based on the most advanced technologies.

Young and energetic engineers and prospective managers who come to Sun Pressing Private Limited are impressed by the short communication channels within the company, by the speed with which we can reach and implement decisions, and by the creative freedom we offer. We are a company whose source for inspiration and motivation is our customers, and we deeply appreciate your continuing trust and support.

We at Sun Pressing Private Limited are confident that we can create a mutually beneficial relationship with all of you, well into future.
